

KORE.AI COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Competitive Signal Report

Topic: Enterprise agentic AI & contact-center AI (CCAI) · Window: last 72h · Thursday, 20 August 2026 · 20:08 IST
Prepared by Kore.ai Competitive Intelligence

Bottom line: Competitors are doubling down on agentic AI integration and partnership plays, with ServiceNow and Tech Mahindra highlighting scaled enterprise AI delivery, while PolyAI faces challenges with accent recognition and Glean expands its partner network. Kore.ai's ABL and proven analyst leadership remain key differentiators against these evolving, but often fragmented, competitive efforts.

WHAT MATTERS THIS RUN

Three signals that matter

ServiceNow scales enterprise AI with Tech Mahindra

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-20) Tech Mahindra and ServiceNow announced an expanded partnership to deliver production-ready enterprise AI at scale, including the launch of a new AI & Innovation CoE. Tribal also launched ServiceNow AI Support. PR Newswire UK WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This signals a continued push by large platform vendors to leverage partner ecosystems for scaled AI deployments. Kore.ai's ABL provides a more integrated and governed approach to building and deploying AI agents, reducing the complexity and risk associated with partner-led integrations.

PolyAI faces accent recognition hurdles

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-19) An AI GP receptionist powered by PolyAI reportedly struggled to understand a Yorkshire accent, highlighting potential limitations in voice AI's nuanced language processing. AOL.CA WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This incident underscores the importance of robust, real-world voice processing capabilities. Kore.ai's voice-native platform and deep expertise in handling diverse speech patterns and accents provide a more reliable and inclusive customer experience, directly countering such limitations.

Glean expands partner network for AI

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-19) Glean launched a Global Partner Network for its AI initiatives, signaling a strategic move to broaden its reach and integration capabilities within the enterprise AI space. Channel Insider WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
While Glean focuses on enterprise search and internal agents, its partner expansion highlights the growing trend of ecosystem plays. Kore.ai's established, broad partner network and its ability to integrate across diverse enterprise systems and models offer a more mature and proven path to comprehensive CX automation.

ON THE RADAR

Watch for

- ServiceNow's continued integration of Moveworks and its impact on their agentic AI strategy.
- Further details on PolyAI's efforts to address accent and dialect recognition challenges.
- Competitive responses to Glean's partner network expansion.

SO WHAT — DO THIS NOW

Recommended actions

- Emphasize Kore.ai's analyst leadership in Conversational AI for Customer Service to counter platform vendor partnership narratives.
- Highlight ABL's deterministic execution and compile-time validation as a key differentiator against complex orchestration and partner-led AI deployments.
- Leverage PolyAI's accent recognition challenge to reinforce Kore.ai's voice-native capabilities and broad language support.

- Reinforce the message of a unified, single-stack platform versus acquired or stitched-together AI capabilities.
