

KORE.AI COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Competitive Signal Report

Topic: Enterprise agentic AI & contact-center AI (CCAI) · Window: last 72h · Friday, 24 July 2026 · 21:25 IST
Prepared by Kore.ai Competitive Intelligence

Bottom line: Competitors are aggressively expanding agentic capabilities and partnerships, with Sierra's acquisition of Takeoff signaling a push for long-horizon agents and NICE/Cognigy deepening their RingCentral integration. Kore.ai's ABL and proven analyst leadership remain key differentiators against these evolving threats, particularly in demonstrating deterministic execution and true omnichannel depth.

WHAT MATTERS THIS RUN

Three signals that matter

Sierra Builds Long-Horizon Agent Platform

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-07-24) Sierra acquired Takeoff to build a long-horizon AI agent platform called Horizon. CMSWire WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This move by Sierra highlights the market's focus on advanced agent capabilities, underscoring Kore.ai's ABL advantage in delivering deterministic, compile-time validated agents that can handle complex, long-horizon tasks reliably, unlike prompt-based approaches.

NICE/Cognigy Expands RingCentral Partnership with AI Focus

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-07-24) NiCE and RingCentral are expanding their RingEX partnership with an increased focus on AI. CMSWire WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This partnership expansion by NICE/Cognigy reinforces the trend of CCaaS vendors integrating deeper AI capabilities. Kore.ai's proven leadership in independent conversational AI evaluations and its unified, AI-native platform offer a more robust and less fragmented solution compared to stitched-together offerings.

ServiceNow Leverages AI for Marketing Transformation

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-07-24) ServiceNow is utilizing AI to transform its marketing efforts. Adobe for Business WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
While ServiceNow is showcasing AI's internal application, Kore.ai's strength lies in its direct application to customer-facing automation and contact centers. Our platform's ability to deliver measurable CX improvements and operational efficiencies through its ABL framework remains a key differentiator against ITSM-centric platforms.

AT A GLANCE

Signal priority table

Competitor	Move (dated)	Threat	Kore.ai counter
------------	--------------	--------	-----------------

Sierra	(2026-07-24) Acquires Takeoff for long-horizon agents - CMSWire	High	ABL's deterministic execution vs. prompt-based long-horizon agents
NICE (Cognigy)	(2026-07-24) Expands RingCentral partnership with AI focus - CMSWire	Med	Unified, AI-native platform vs. stitched CCaaS + AI
ServiceNow Agent Platform	(2026-07-24) Uses AI to transform marketing - Adobe for Business	Low	Direct CX automation impact of ABL vs. internal AI use cases

ON THE RADAR

Watch for

- Further integration announcements from NICE/Cognigy and RingCentral.
- Any concrete customer proof points emerging from Sierra's Horizon platform.
- Salesforce's ongoing efforts to clarify Agentforce pricing and adoption.

SO WHAT — DO THIS NOW

Recommended actions

- Emphasize Kore.ai's analyst leadership in Conversational AI for Customer Service (Forrester Q2 2026) and Conversational AI Platforms (Gartner 2025) to highlight our platform's proven depth and breadth.
- Leverage ABL's compile-time validation and deterministic execution as a key differentiator against competitors focusing on "long-horizon" or prompt-based agents.
- Reinforce Kore.ai's true omnichannel capabilities as a strategic advantage over voice-first or voice-heavy solutions.
- Highlight the integrated nature of Kore.ai's platform versus the "bolted-on" AI approaches seen in some CCaaS incumbents.
