

KORE.AI COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Competitive Signal Report

Topic: Enterprise agentic AI & contact-center AI (CCAI) · Window: last 72h · Tuesday, 18 August 2026 · 08:26 IST
Prepared by Kore.ai Competitive Intelligence

Bottom line: Competitors are pushing AI agent capabilities, but often with unproven governance or complex pricing models. Kore.ai's ABL and analyst leadership provide a clear counterpoint to these emerging weaknesses.

Agentforce Integrates Buyer Intelligence, Highlighting Platform Lock-in

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-17) 6sense announced embedding buyer intelligence into multiple AI platforms, including Agentforce, with four new product releases. marketscale.com WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This integration highlights Agentforce's reliance on third-party data intelligence, underscoring Kore.ai's advantage in providing a unified, integrated platform with native capabilities and a more transparent pricing structure.

ServiceNow Reports High Agentic AI Adoption in Singapore, Signaling Market Momentum

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-17) ServiceNow reported 51% agentic AI adoption in Singapore, indicating strong market traction for AI-driven solutions in enterprise environments. Portal ERP WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
While ServiceNow demonstrates adoption, Kore.ai's leadership in independent analyst evaluations (Gartner, Forrester) provides a stronger validation of platform capability and enterprise readiness, countering the narrative of adoption alone.

Sierra's Focus on Founder-Led AI Agents Raises Governance Questions

WHAT HAPPENED
(2026-08-16) A report discussed how AI agent approval queues are replacing full autonomy for founders, suggesting a shift towards more controlled AI deployments. startupfortune.com WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This trend aligns with Kore.ai's ABL, which emphasizes compile-time validation and deterministic execution over full autonomy, positioning Kore.ai as the safer, more governed choice for regulated industries.
