

KORE.AI COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Competitive Signal Report

Topic: Enterprise agentic AI & contact-center AI (CCAI) · Window: last 72h · Wednesday, 15 July 2026 · 10:24 IST

Prepared by Kore.ai Competitive Intelligence

Bottom line: Competitors are aggressively pushing AI agent capabilities and partnerships, with Sierra securing a major exclusive partnership in Japan and NICE (Cognigy) embedding its AI into core banking workflows, highlighting the increasing demand for integrated, enterprise-grade agentic solutions. Kore.ai's strength in true omnichannel and analyst-validated leadership in conversational AI for CX remains a key differentiator against these moves.

WHAT MATTERS THIS RUN

Three signals that matter

Sierra Secures Exclusive SoftBank Partnership in Japan

WHAT HAPPENED

(2026-07-14) Sierra has signed SoftBank as its exclusive partner for its AI customer service platform in Japan, aiming to leverage SoftBank's extensive network and market presence. CMSWire WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This partnership signifies Sierra's aggressive global expansion strategy and their focus on leveraging established channel partners. Kore.ai's established global presence and broad partner ecosystem offer a more robust and proven solution for enterprises seeking immediate, worldwide deployment.

NICE (Cognigy) Embeds Agentic AI into Banco do Brasil's Core Banking

WHAT HAPPENED

(2026-07-14) Banco do Brasil is deploying NICE Agentic AI to transform its relationship banking workflows and enhance customer engagement, embedding AI agents into its core operational processes. FF News WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
This move highlights NICE's strategy to integrate Cognigy's capabilities into existing enterprise workflows, particularly in regulated industries like banking. Kore.ai's ABL-driven platform offers compile-time validation and deterministic execution, which are critical for regulated environments and provide a stronger guarantee of compliance and reliability than a bolt-on solution.

Glean Expands AI Agent Web Capabilities and Gains Analyst Recognition

WHAT HAPPENED

(2026-07-14) Glean has expanded its AI Agent web capabilities through a partnership with TinyFish and has been recognized as a Market Shaper in the 2026 Gartner® Emerging Market Quadrant for No-Code Agent Builders. MarTech Cube, AOL.COM WHAT IT MEANS FOR KORE.AI
Glean's recognition in a "No-Code Agent Builders" quadrant, while positive for them, reinforces that their focus remains on internal knowledge management and productivity tools, not enterprise-grade, customer-facing conversational AI. Kore.ai's leadership in Gartner's Conversational AI Platforms MQ and Forrester's CAI for Customer Service Wave clearly positions us as the superior choice for CX automation.

ON THE RADAR

Watch for

- Continued focus from Sierra on expanding its partnership network globally.
- Deeper integration and customer proof points from NICE (Cognigy) in highly regulated sectors.
- ServiceNow's continued efforts to unify its AI offerings under the "Otto" umbrella and demonstrate clear ROI.

SO WHAT — DO THIS NOW

Recommended actions

- Emphasize Kore.ai's proven, enterprise-grade omnichannel capabilities and global deployment readiness in all sales and marketing engagements, directly contrasting with voice-first or regionally focused competitors.
- Highlight Kore.ai's analyst-validated leadership in Conversational AI for Customer Service (Gartner MQ, Forrester Wave) as a key differentiator against competitors with less independent validation or recognition in adjacent categories.
- Reinforce the value of Kore.ai's Agent Behavior Language (ABL) for its compile-time validation and deterministic execution, especially when engaging with prospects in regulated industries like banking.

- Monitor competitor pricing models closely, particularly consumption-based or token-based approaches, and proactively position Kore.ai's transparent and predictable TCO.
